SCHEDULE 3 AUDITION AND APPOINTMENT POLICY

1 SELECTION CRITERIA

- 1.1 The primary criterion in the selection of Players for all positions will be playing ability considered in conjunction with the relevant job description.
- 1.2 Attributes that will be assessed by the audition process relate to performance standard and include rhythm, intonation, stylistic correctness, general musicianship, sound production and the compatibility of the sound with that of the section.
- 1.3 Attributes that will be assessed by the trial process will include those of the audition process and in addition:
  - (a) Performance Standard: including knowledge of the repertoire, the ability to follow a conductor, the ability to adjust intonation so as to conform with the section, the ability to perform under performance conditions, the ability to learn repertoire quickly, preparation of work prior to rehearsal, sight-reading and possession or access to an instrument of appropriate standard;
  - (b) Ensemble: including the ability to play in rhythmic ensemble with the Section Leader, the ability to blend in with the section and to demonstrate a flexibility of performance approach;
  - (c) Compatibility: including the ability to be a friendly and co-operative member of a team, reliability and punctuality, a dedication and commitment to artistic excellence and the aspirations of the Company, the ability to accept direction, a preparedness to participate in non-performing activities, and appropriate standards of personal presentation for rehearsals and performances. For Principal positions, the ability to lead the section and earn the respect of section members, and the ability to organise and direct the section.

OPERA AUSTRALIA ORCHESTRA RECORDED AUDITION INSTRUCTIONS

Candidates are strongly encouraged to perform a live audition. Should you be unable to attend you may submit a recording (visual and audio) of your audition. Please note the Opera Australia Orchestra does not make appointments by recorded auditions alone. If successful, applicants must perform a "live" audition within one month of the audition date, unless otherwise mutually agreed by the candidate and the Audition Panel. Any travel costs are at the applicant's own expense.

If you are submitting a recorded audition, you will be sent a submission link via email. You must submit the links for your recordings no later 5pm AEST on Tuesday 10 November 2026.

To be accepted, recorded auditions must observe the following criteria:

- State your full name at the beginning of the recording. Ensure the recorded vision captures the full body and instrument.
- Repertoire is to be recorded in two groups:
  1. set work
  2. Orchestral excerpts

Each grouping must be recorded in a single take and in the order listed on the excerpt list, without deleting any false starts or errors. Both set works and the excerpts must be recorded on the same day.

- Rest periods may be taken between each piece/excerpt in each group (as in a live audition). You must remain on camera for the full recording of each group.
- Candidates must ensure that they record the highest quality sound possible.
- Accepted format is submission by URL via a third-party hosting site, limited to Vimeo and YouTube only. Submissions must clearly identify the start time of each movement/excerpt as well as the name of the work and composer. Failure to do this will render your recording ineligible. There are many tutorials available online on how to add bookmarks to your video.
- Please email your recording directly to Valérie no later 5pm AEST on Tuesday 10 November 2026
- Candidates are to provide a written statement as follows: "I declare that the material recorded on this recording is my own work. The recording took place on (Date) at (Venue) in (City) in one continuous un-edited take per grouping on (type of recording equipment)".
- If in doubt, please contact Valérie to clarify any of the guidelines.
